

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1912.

O. J. De MOLL. EMMONS S. SMITH.

O. J. De Moll & Co.

"Specialists in Player-Pianos and Victor Victrolas."

S.W. Cor. 12th and G Sts.

Annual May Clearance Sale OF PIANOS AND PLAYER-PIANOS

If you are one of the wise buyers who have been waiting for this Annual Sale of ours, you will find an exceptional list of High-Grade Pianos and Player-Pianos at prices never before quoted.

All New Pianos and Player-Pianos at 10% to 20% Off.

Included in the stock of new instruments are such makes as Chickering & Sons, Vose & Sons, J. & C. Fischer, Shoninger, Autopianos and others.

EXTRA SPECIALS Traded-in Player-Pianos.

$550 Autonelle (88), $325	$650 Autopiano (88), $490
$600 Cecilian (88), $300	$600 Autopiano (88), $450
$550 Pianola (88), $350	$550 Artistone (88), $347
$500 Mansford (88), $290	$750 Vose & Sons (88) $590
$600 Autotone (88), $350	$750 Fischer (88), $590

And Fifty Others From $250 Up.

Partial List of Traded-in Pianos.

Steinway $190	Ivers & Pond . . . $175
Steinway $350	Hamilton $150
Knabe $225	Bradbury $150
Knabe $190	Hardman $275
Knabe $150	Vose & Sons . . . $250
Stieff $200	Shoninger $250
Briggs $100	Kimball $125
Bradbury $100	Kimball $150
Jacob Bros. . . $100	Chickering . . . $100
Smith & Barnes . $150	Chickering . . . $150
Stultz & Bauer . $175	Decker Bros. . . $100
Pease $100	Harvard $125
Hardman $100	Gabler $125
Fischer $290	Jewett $150
Vose & Sons . . $275	Milton $175

And Many Others at $50 and Up.

Terms Arranged if Desired.

P. S.

We have just made arrangements with three of the largest manufacturers of Player-Pianos whereby we can install a SELF-PLAYING MECHANISM in ANY UPRIGHT PIANO at a very reasonable price. Let us give you an estimate.

O. J. De MOLL. EMMONS S. SMITH.

O. J. De Moll & Co.

"Specialists in Player-Pianos and Victor Victrolas."
Largest and Most Complete Line of Player-Pianos and Music
Rolls in the South.

12th and G Streets N.W.

THE KENTUCKY MATRON

THERE were a number of brilliant entertainments the past week, as always follows the presence here of distinguished foreign guests, culminating in the White House garden party Friday. Today it starts again with the Red Cross delegates invited to a musical at Friendship, the John R. McLean suburban place, this afternoon. Mrs. Lett's garden party tomorrow and Mrs. Edward B. McLean's evening reception Tuesday are events of the first magnitude this week. In addition to the splendid evening reception given to the delegates last week a luncheon is given every day for them at the Pan-American building.

The President and Mrs. Taft and Speaker and Mrs. Clark are expected to attend the marriage of Mrs. Louise Bankhead Perry, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Bankhead of Alabama, and widow of Col. William Hayne Perry of South Carolina, and Mr. Arthur Graves Lund of Boston, in the apartments of the bride's parents at the Arlington this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The group of attendants who will constitute the bridal party will be composed of the President's aid, Maj. Thomas L. Rhodes, and the bride's young daughter, Miss Louise Perry; Dr. Thomas M. Owen, the historian of Alabama, and Mrs. Owen, who is the bride's only sister; Mr. John H. Bankhead, Jr., and his wife, Mrs. Bankhead, and Representative Oscar W. Underwood and Mrs. Underwood. The bride's gown is to be of ivory satin embroidered with lilies in threads of gold. The tunic and bertha are of point lace outlined with pearls. Her jewels include a tiara, necklace and old-fashioned bracelet of pearls, and the bridal bouquet will be made with valley lilies and bride roses.

Mr. Lund has business interests in New York and Boston. He is a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery of Boston, and will, accompanied by his bride, attend the celebration of the founding of this organization in London in the early summer, the Boston branch being an offshoot of the old London order.

Lieut. Col. J. D. McLachlan, military attaché of the British embassy, and Mrs. McLachlan will entertain at a large dinner at Rauscher's tonight. Yesterday at the same place Lieut. Col. McLachlan was honor guest at a farewell luncheon given by the military and naval attaches of embassies and legations.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertaining in compliment to the French delegates to the Red Cross conference, had as dinner guests last night the Secretary of War and Mrs. Simmons, Mr. Henry White, Gen. Michal, Surgeon General Pauzat of the French army, Surgeon General Jan of the French navy, Medical Inspector Bymer of the French army, Mme. Panas, Mme. Lardin de Musset, Countess Paul de Pourtales, Mme. Emile Vallet, Mr. Charrier, Mr. Thurneysen, Count Jacques de Pourtales, Dr. Lesage of the French army, Dr. Dedet, Miss Catherine Cameron, Miss Davis, Miss Oliver, Countess de Peretti de la Rocca and Commander and Vicomtesse Benoit d'Azy.

Capt. and Mrs. M. E. Hanna gave a dinner party last night aboard their yacht, the Cayala.

Mrs. Champ Clark will have as her guests this week Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, Miss Madeline Edison and Miss Frances Stockwell of New York.

Secretary MacVeagh has gone to Dublin, N. H., to spend some days.

Representative Heron Catlin gave a dinner last night at Dower House.

The Austrian Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmüller, who are entertaining over Sunday the Austrian consul general at New York, will give a dinner tonight at the Chevy Chase Club, when the Austrian delegates to the Red Cross conference will be their guests.

Mrs. Lett has her sister, Mrs. John Thompson of Chicago, with her for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lett have taken possession of their Virginia estate and will have a large party at luncheon there today.

The Danish minister and Countess Moltke were among those giving dinners last night.

Dutch treat and other dinners followed by dancing were features of the entertaining at the Chevy Chase Club last night.

The Fort Myer hop attracted a good many Washington visitors last night and was preceded by several small dinners and late suppers at various homes at the post.

An interesting wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Hilda Farr, daughter of Representative and Mrs. John L. Farr of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Robert A. Beggs, Jr., of Philadelphia.

The ceremony was attended with great simplicity, only the two families being present.

The bride was escorted and given away by her father, and wore a stylish traveling suit of white broadcloth, with a white and black hat.

In the drawing room of the Farr home, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. William D. Moss, pastor of the Washington Heights Presbyterian Church, an effective decoration of American beauty roses and dogwood blossoms was in place. After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Beggs left for a short trip, and on their return will reside in Philadelphia, where the former practices the profession of law.

They will sail for an extended stay abroad about the 1st of June.

Mrs. Roger S. Boutell entertained at a charming tea this afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Alice Boutell, daughter of the United States minister to Switzerland and Mrs. Boutell, who is on an extended visit to this country.

Those assisting in the hospitality were Miss Nixon of Chicago, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Frances Webster and Miss Eleanor Murray.

Miss Boutell will remain in Washington about three weeks, and will then go to Clifton Springs on a visit to her grandparents.

She will sail June 12 with her brother for Europe and will spend the summer in Switzerland with her parents.

The marriage of Miss Boutell and Mr. J. L. Boutell will take place in this country next November.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Anderson, daughter of the late Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Frank Anderson, U. S. N., and Ensign Rush Southgate Fay, will take place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Anderson home, in place of St. Thomas' Church as originally planned.

She will be attended by the death of the groom's mother.

Mrs. Dorothy Anderson will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Harriet Bayne of this city and Miss Gay Lloyd of New York, daughter of Bishop Lloyd, will be the bridesmaids.

Capt. Fay, U. S. M. C., brother of Ensign Fay, will be best man, and Ensign D. V. of the Ensign and Ensign V. G. Mills, U. S. N., the ushers.

The Rev. C. Ernest Smith will officiate.

A reception will follow.

Miss Katharine Foss, the charming young schoolgirl daughter of Representative and Mrs. George Edmund Foss, entertained at a small informal tea yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mark Hanna is now in Paris, after spending some time in London.

The marriage of Mr. Victor Gilbey Hine, grandson of Sir Walter Gilbey, and Miss Frances Osborne, daughter of the late American consul general and Mrs. William McKinley Osborne, was an event of much interest in London last week.

The bride was given away by her brother, and wore a dress of soft white crepe de chine, the bodice embroidered in crystals and pearls, and her long train was embroidered in the same manner.

Two little pages, wearing pale mauve corduroy silk suits, with Robin Hood tunic and suede collars and cuffs, were followed by four bridesmaids. They were dressed in pale mauve chiffon over satin, trimmed with crystal fringe and white lace with large purple bows arranged with tulle bows and parma violets. Gold signet rings were their presents from the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Dalton have returned from New York and are at the Melrose, 1343 Clifton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Horn Weems of Winchester, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara M., and Dr. S. Logan Owens of Baltimore.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

and Miss Frances Osborne, daughter of the late American consul general and Mrs. William McKinley Osborne, was an event of much interest in London last week.

The bride was given away by her brother, and wore a dress of soft white crepe de chine, the bodice embroidered in crystals and pearls, and her long train was embroidered in the same manner.

Two little pages, wearing pale mauve corduroy silk suits, with Robin Hood tunic and suede collars and cuffs, were followed by four bridesmaids. They were dressed in pale mauve chiffon over satin, trimmed with crystal fringe and white lace with large purple bows arranged with tulle bows and parma violets. Gold signet rings were their presents from the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Dalton have returned from New York and are at the Melrose, 1343 Clifton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Horn Weems of Winchester, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Clara M., and Dr. S. Logan Owens of Baltimore.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Mrs. B. Young of Belmont street has returned to town from a visit in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Max Levy of Baltimore are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Oppenheimer.

Miss Helen Strasburger leaves town tomorrow for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of Miss Cecile Hamp.

Mrs. Louis Simon has returned to her home in Georgetown after a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Rosa Kaufman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Franc, en route from the south to her home in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert R. West of Newton Center, Mass., has for the past week been the guest of Mrs. Charles G. Lynch and other friends in Brookland, where her

1941 Bimmore street, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Nordlinger, will sail for abroad on May 30, to spend the summer touring.

Philipsborn

THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET

Dry air cold storage for furs—with insurance against loss or damage by moth, fire or theft. Moderate charges.

Tailored Suits Greatly Reduced.

No reason to reduce these Suits, except that we have too many.

These are not the kind of suits that you'd expect to find reduced so early in the season.

Choose from smart models such as you'll need for vacation wear—in the fashionable mannish worsteds and homespuns.

Also Serges and Whipcords—in white, black and navy.

No use crying over spilled milk—we bought too many, now we'll have to take our loss.

The sale prices are $10 to $20 less than actual value.

Remember—these are from our regular stock, not suits bought specially for a sale.

$14.75 for $25.00 Values.

$19.75 for $30.00 Values.

$25.00 for $40.00 Values.

$33.75 for $55.00 Values.

New arrivals in midsummer styles of Linen Suits and Dresses; Satin, Silk and Linen Coats; Low-priced Tub Dresses; Tailored Linen and White Serge Skirts; Silk and Sicilian Tailored Suits; Marquiesette and Lingerie Waists and Dresses will be displayed tomorrow.

An Important Sale of Dresses.

Most of our Dresses have been marked down. The reductions average one-third from regular prices.

No reason except that we have too many.

More than 500 of the season's choicest Dresses are affected by this sale.

No matter whether your need is for a simple street frock or an elaborate evening dress—you can supply it at a price that means a saving of one-third.

Charmeuse, silks, satins, voiles, marquiesettes, crepe meters, linens and lingerie are all represented, in a wide variety of new and desirable models.

$12.50 for $20.00 Values.

$19.75 for $30.00 Values.

$24.75 for $38.00 Values.

$33.75 for $55.00 Values.

given by the board of lady managers of the George Washington University Hospital. Mrs. Byrnes' home has long been known in Georgetown as the Grant mansion. It is one of the many historical places in that part of the city and offers a fine view of the city and river.

The wedding of Miss Clara Barnes Danforth, daughter of Mrs. Frank Lyman Dummell of New York, and Francis Bacon Hamlin, son of the late Rev. Dr. Tunis S. Hamlin of Washington, D. C., will take place at noon June 16 at Christ Church, Redding Ridge, Conn. The wedding will be followed by a reception at Hillcroft, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Dummell at Redding Ridge.

Mrs. Elbert B. Hamlin is to be matron of honor. Miss Gladys Lee was maid of honor, and Miss Anna A. Schaefer of New York and Miss Ida Belle Galbreath of St. Louis are to be the bridesmaids. Elbert B. Hamlin will act as his brother's best man and the ushers chosen are: F. Lyman Dummell, Jr., brother of the bride; Alexander Gordon and Robert Mallory, Jr., of New York, and T. Beach Platt of Washington.

The Deborah Knapp Chapter, D. A. R., was entertained on Wednesday evening by its regent, Mrs. Davis, at the home of Mrs. Croissant, on Q street. The chapter received a cordial invitation from its four non-resident members living at Herndon, Va., to hold its June meeting with them. This invitation was accepted and the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Roby June 12 next.

A short program of music and recitation was rendered and matters of interest and advancement for the society were discussed.

Among the guests present were the state regent, Mrs. Lockwood; the former popular registrar general, Miss Grace Pierce; Miss Rosalie Small, Mrs. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. William Linder, the Misses

(Continued on Second Page.)

Katie E. Dunn's is the Great Exclusive Hair Emporium here. Combings Made to Order.

The Trend of Fashion
Is shown in our methods of dressing the hair. Bring your combings and let us make them up to order.
High-Grade Hair Goods
In Stock and Made to Order.

Sold at All Druggists' and Department Stores.
Also at KATIE E. DUNN'S, 1010 F St. N.W.

Miss Carrie K. McNeil, 214 N. Liberty St., is Our Baltimore Agent.

THE DU FOUR COMPANY,
Walter Building, Second and Third Floors,
1010 F Street N.W.
Telephone Main 1431.